 What is the idea of a conveyance allowance? When these boards meet once a quarter & full A. is franked for all journeys outside headquarters? Who is responsible for this? ~~See that~~ I believe no allowance is paid in Madras or Bombay.

November 1916. The allowance is granted if the Vice-President is required to send office ~~requisite~~ ~~expenses~~ and order to meet the cost of maintaining a conveyance for going to the D. B. office. ~~expenses~~. An allowance was first sanctioned to the Vice-President of the Bangalore D. B. in June 1920 and this has nothing to do with the T. A. given to the V.P. for journeys performed for inspection etc. The allowance at the rate of Rs 50 a month has been sanctioned to the Vice-President of the Mysore D. B. Provision for conveyance allowance to the President of the Hassan D. B. exists - the current year's Budget of the B. D.

It is ascertained that in Bombay and Madras Non-official Presidents and Vice Presidents of Local Bodies do not receive any honorarium but only Travelling

The grant of a carriage allowance was approved in Government Order of the 16th November 1916. The allowance is granted in order to meet the cost of - - maintaining a conveyance for going to the District Board Office. An allowance was first sanctioned to the Vice President of the Bangalore District Board in June 192
The purpose of the conveyance allowance is different from that of the Travelling Allowance given for journeys performed for inspection etc.,

The principles of giving the allowance when necessary having been once accepted it may not be desirable now to discontinue the conveyance allowances.

A statement showing the allowances hitherto sanctioned and being drawn is hereto appended.

25) There is no provision in the Local Board Act of British India for the payment of remuneration or allowances ^(other than T. A) to members of District Boards, except in the Central Provinces Local Self Govt. Act ^{of 1920} Secn. 55 of this Act authorises the application of the District Fund for meeting the expense in respect of the payment of remuneration and allowances, if any, to office bearers and members of the District Councils and Local Boards in connection with their duties under the Act, in accordance with the rules made by the Local Govt. in this behalf. A similar provision existed in the Central Provinces Act of 1883 and a rule had been framed ^{under that Act} to the effect that no remuneration shall be paid to the members of Dist. Board except travelling allowances. A copy of the rules framed by the Local Govt. under the Act. of 1920 is not available. The Special Section is not therefore in a position to get any further information on this point.

26) In this connection the following facts in ^{regard} connection to the grant of conveyance allowances to Presidents and Vice-presidents ^{of B. B. in the State may perhaps be approved in} connection with the disposal of the case under disposal.

2) Following the Central Provinces Act of 1883, the Mysore Local Boards Regulation of 1902 provided for the Govt. framing rules in regard to the remuneration and allowances, if any, of members (in Secn. 31) ^{Mysore Local Boards and V. P} In the Regulation of 1918 (Secn. 37) this provision was retained and in the present District Boards Regulation (Secn. 100) the provision has been repeated. The Mysore Regulation allows the grant of remuneration and allowances to the -- Dt. Bd. members. For ^{the further development of Local self govt} ~~the~~ para 16 (4) of Govt. Order No. 3003-22/ML.132-10-1 dated 10th Novr. 1916, the Govt. observed that "Under present conditions it will not be possible to have elected Presidents in the case of the majority of Boards; but in all such cases Vice-Presidents may, as far as possible, be elected. ~~And~~ A carriage allowance may be grated to them, if necessary".

3) A conveyance allowance of Rs. 50 a month was proposed by the Dt. Bd President in May 1920 on the ground that the Vice-President had to attend office on all office days and this involves in a big city like Bangalore the maintenance of a suitable conveyance and it is but fair that the expenses of maintaining one should be reimbursed. Govt. sanctioned the proposal in G.O. No. R. 14495-6/L. B. ~~4920~~ 19 dated 30th June 1920.

29) The privilege of electing a non-official as President was given to the Bangalore District Board in October 1922. In June 1923 the Bangalore District Board proposed a grant of a conveyance allowance of Rs. 250 per mensem to the President on the ground that he should maintain a motor-car. The then First Member of Council in his minute dated 30th July 1923 (Vide L.B. 1 of 23 Series 6 and 7) made the following observations

"I think the Dt. Bd. have made this proposal in an irresponsible manner having regard to the finances of the Board and the demand for works of public utility. An allowance of Rs. 100 should be sufficient, the President being entitled to the usual travelling allowance."

The Dewan agreed with the Member and an allowance of Rs. 100 was sanctioned in C.O. No. 1812-13/L.B. 1-23-11 dated 4th Sept. 1923.

As regards the question ~~as to~~ deducting the allowance on dates on which L.A. is claimed the question was specifically raised by the Comptroller in December 1921 and it was
